

Chevalier Clerget Beaujolais Villages

BURGUNDY (FRANCE)

The Clerget family dates back to 1268. Jean Clerget, Member of the Royal Parliament in Dijon, was appointed "Chevalier" in 1698 and granted a family coat of arms.

Bright red with expressive red currents and strawberries aromas. Bright black raspberries, juicy strawberries, black currants, soft tannins and delightful acidity.

-- Cheers!