

Chevalier Clerget
Mâcon Villages
Chardonnay

BURGUNDY (FRANCE)

The Clerget family dates back to 1268. Jean Clerget, Member of the Royal Parliament in Dijon, was appointed "Chevalier" in 1698 and granted a family coat of arms.

Beautiful color of lemon gold and straw with aromas of acacia, lemongrass and citrus. Fresh Braeburn apples with hints of quince, fennel and pine.

-- Cheers!