

Castelfeder
Pinot Bianco
"Vom Stein"

ALTO ADIGE (ITALY)

The Castelfeder Winery is nestled in the Etsch Valley in the northernmost part of Italy (bordering Austria). The Giovanett family includes three generations of winemakers (above). Vom Stein means "of stone" and describes the vineyard soil.

Ripe apples with citrus flowers and fresh pears. Subtle green peppers linger under the minerality. Aged five months on the lees. Great with asparagus, seafood or pork.
