

1851 CELLARS

Chardonnay

COLUMBIA VALLEY (WA)

1851 is the year that settlers arrived in what is now called Seattle, and this wine celebrates WA State and the great city of Seattle! The icon is a Dahlia, the state flower.

Fuller-bodied with warm (not cooked) Braeburn apples, green apple undertones, gentle spices, simple acidity with a round finish, but no oak!

-- Cheers!