

Maison Paul Reitz Vosne-Romanée BURGUNDY (FRANCE)

This original estate was created in 1793 by Jean Adam Reitz. Strengthened by following generations, Paul Reitz began his winemaking business in 1872. The Paul Reitz winery is situated at the heart of Burgundy vineyards at Corgoloin, on the border of the Côte de Nuits and the Côte de Beaune. It produces wines from Côte de Nuits, Côte de Beaune, Côte Chalonnaise, Mâconnais & Beaujolais.

Grapes: Pinot Noir

Appellation: Communale de la Côte de Nuits, in the Côte d'Or. This appellation comprises 15 Premier Cru and 8 Grand Cru vineyards.

Producing Districts: Vosne-Romanée and Flagey-Echezeaux

Vinification & Ageing: Extended ageing in French oak casks

Alcohol: 13% vol.

Appearance: Clear and developed color has a tendency towards brown with terracotta highlights

Nose: Notes of developed pinot, slightly mushroomy, grilled, red-fruit conserve, then the fruitiness and freshness appears.

Palate: Soft in the mouth with fine tannins.

Pairings: This opulent wine, fleshy & spicy, goes best with strong meats: roast fowl, slow roasted lamb & roast game bird show it off best by far. But a thin fillet of beef won't disappoint. Strong flavored cheeses (Epoisses, Langres, Saint-Florentin, Aisy Cendré, Cîteaux) would also be delicious.

Burgundy Wine Region of France

Climate: Burgundy experiences very hot summers and very cold winters. It is the coolest and most northern red-wine producing region in the world. The vintages from Burgundy can vary greatly as there are years that lack sun or have unpredictable rainfall. This can lead to un-ripened grapes, and less flavorful wines.

There are two main grape varieties grown in Burgundy: Chardonnay & Pinot Noir. However, this region does not classify their wines according to varietal; it is all about the 'terroir' for a particular wine. The ranking of wines from least to most sophisticated are: Bourgogne Blanc/Rouge; Villages; Premier Cru; Grand Cru.

Vosne-Romanée is a commune in the Côte d'Or and is home to six Grand Crus vineyards: Romanée-Conti, La Romanée La Tâche, Richebourg, Romanée-Saint-Vivant and Le Grande Rue. Entirely made from Pinot Noir, this region produces rich and silky wine that are some of the most acclaimed amongst collectors.
